LOCAL NEWS.

Term of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county Term of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county do Family 15 50 commenced on Monday, the 5th inst., Judge Grain, Wheat, White prime 2 90 H. W. Thomas, presiding. Except the entering of Chancery Orders, the time of the Court has been taken up in criminal trials. On Monday, Albert Abbott was tried for grand larceny, in cutting down and carrying off, during the war, of $10,000 worth of wood, from the land of Mrs. Frances Lemoine. The case was submitted to the jury without argument, on instructions from the Court, and a verdict of guilty rendered-term of imprisonment four years. Exceptions have been taken and over-ruled, and an application will be made to the Court of Appeals for a new trial, on the ground of the act being committed without felonious

On Tuesday, Henry Waynes, colored, was tried on a charge of murder. The case was argued at length by Geo. Tucker, for the Commonwealth, and W. H. Dulany and M. D. Ball, for the defence, and a verdict of "Not Guilty" rendered. On Wednesday, Frank Napper was tried for felonious assault. The jury on this case iss till out. Several negroes have been tried for larceny, and Beverly Blough found guilty and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. No civil cases have yet been tried. A large number of persons are in attendance.

NEW ENTERPRISE. - Our energetic and entered, and holders are not inclined to submit to a prising townsman, Mr. E. Rosenthal, having reduction. Wheat has declined 5a6c, and is unsteady. The receipts are fair. Corn is in good request at a further decline of 4a5c. New 90a 95c. Rye and oats are unchanged. Butter is in less action and with large receipts. leased the Corporation property, at the north east intersection of Duke street with the strand, has erected thereon a brick building, in less active enquiry, with large receipts. Eggs are still active. Green apples are in plentiful supply, and we note a decline in prices. Groin which he has now in operation the machinery necessary for the manufacture of all parts of a wheel-hubs, spokes, felloes and rims. A magnificient steam engine, built by Mr. 320a325. Corn quiet. Flour steady. Groceries firm. Coffee active. Whiskey dull. Seeds firm; new clover $9a9 25. Oats firm; sales at 66a68. Provisions inactive. Lard and pork Wm. A. Moore, machinist of this city, furnishes the motive power of this establishment. The timber used at Mr. Rosenthal's works is obtained in this vicinity, and an excellent market is now at hand for, and its convenience availed of by, the timber owners and getters of this neighborhood. About twenty-five workmen will be steadily employed at this Factory, -Beef Cattle.-Prices to-day ranged as follows: Scalawags at $4; common Cattle $5a6; fair and the manufactured stock will be disposed of to parties in the South, who will be thus saved the inconveniences, to say the least, attending purchases in more Northern markets.

ROOM FOR COAL .- In anticipation of large arrivals of coal by the canal, at this port, from Comberland, during the next season, the diff- lbs net. erent coal companies, whose agencies will be located here, are making arrangements and for the reception of their consignments; wharf property, in the neighborhood of the canal locks, and in fact all along the strand has in consequence improved in value. We understand that propositions have been made by the agent of a New York company, to the owner of the property on Lumley's point, just south of the Pioneer mills, for its lease, which have however not yet been accepted.

NEW TRIAL ASKED FOR. -In the case of John E. Murdock, indicted for the murder of Francis Posey, in Charles county, Md., last August, (an account of which was published in the Gazette, at the time,) and against whom a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was rendered last week, a motion has made for a new trial, principally on the ground of the misconduct of the jury in separating and going about without the bailiff.

NEARLY A FIRE. - A little child of Mr. William Cogan's, yesterday, in playing in the fire, came very near occasioning a serious conflagration, by igniting a barrel of straw, sitting close to one of Kerosene oil, in his father's store, on Royal street. A gentleman who fortunately happened to be in the store at the time, succeeded in rolling the lighted barrel into the street before the flames had spread.

TABLEUX.—The tableux vivants presented OYSTERS that can be had in the city, with which at the Assembly Rooms last evening, by some he will furnish families and others. He will of the young ladies and gentlemen of this city, also fill orders from the country with promptproved a great success. The hall was crowded, ness, and guarantee satisfaction. He solicits and many went away unable to obtain seats. The exhibition of the series of pictures will be ONE PRICE continued to-night at Liberty Hall, in which all who attend can be comfortably seated.

HARD CASES. - Carrie Wilson and Cora Young, whose names and faces are now familiar at the police stations, were taken up by the watch last night, and carried to the Watch-House, from which, however, they walked Corner of Seventh street and Maryland avenue. away early this morning, taking with them a pistol and several keys—They were re-arrested.

VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE. - Ministers and lay delegates attending the Virginia Conference, which meets this year in Norfolk, on the 21st instant, are requested to call at the Granby street Church, on their arrival in that city, whence they will be conducted to their homes during the session.
